RASSIAS LANGUAGE INSTITUTE
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE COLLEGE

REPORTS

that the Rassias Language Institute of Harold Washington College, with the encouragement and support of the Office of Language and Cultural Education of the Chicago Public Schools, conducted a High School Summer Immersion for students of French and Spanish in the Rassias Method® between Monday, July 6, and Friday, July 17, 1998 at the College; and that students were encouraged to consider Harold Washington College as their college choice through presentations by faculty of the Foreign Language Department and the Advisor of the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society; and that a Commencement Program was held on July 17, 1998 during which the students made presentations based on their enhanced knowledge of both languages which they had acquired during the immersion experience; and Professor John Rassias delivered an address of encouragement via video tape from Dartmouth College, followed by a reception for the students, their families, high school teachers, and high school friends.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
