County of Cook and State of Illinois

PROGRAMS FOR THE MILITARY INTRANET COURSE TRAINING
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on March 28, 1998, a one day workshop was organized by Julia Adams-Bickert in Germany which was attended by more than twenty-five adjunct faculty and staff, to learn the methodology and format of offering college credit courses via the Intranet; and that on June 11 and 12, 1998, a two-day workshop to receive training on introducing additional courses via the Intranet convened at Harold Washington College, under the leadership of John Wozniak and George Bickford and attended by twenty-three full and part time faculty; and that this new initiative at Harold Washington College is in response to the new military contract in effect on August 1, 1998 to create distance delivery systems for approximately one hundred and twenty new courses.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
