PHI THETA KAPPA HONORS INSTITUTE
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on July 30, 1998 through August 2, 1998, Harold Washington College's Mu Pi Chapter hosted the Eighth Annual Illinois Regional Phi Theta Kappa Honors Institute; and that twenty nine chapters were represented by eighty five delegates who participated in a variety of activities and lectures including an architectural tour of Chicago via the River; and that several members of the faculty participated including: James Heard who presented a lecture on the honors topic, "The Pursuit of Happiness: Conflicting Visions and Values" and a discussion of happiness was lead by Professor James Quinn, while Professor Judith Schust organized, led and accompanied the Honors Institute Choir; and that additional presentations were by Professor Sue Gotschall of the University of Chicago and HWC's Assistant Dean Akbar, himself a former member of Mu Pi Chapter; and that seminars were led by Harold Washington PTK students Amy Modell, Rachel Lauria, Gaylord Boggness, Earline McGee and Myra Penny.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
