RASSIAS LANGUAGE INSTITUTE
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that the Rassias Language Institute of Harold Washington College conducted a week-long Advanced Curriculum Methods Workshop for Teachers of Italian at Dominican University, River Forest, IL, with the University granting two graduate credit hours to participants, and a two-week Rassias Italian Immersion Summer Camp for middle school students at Union Ridge School, Harwood Heights, IL; and that the teachers were introduced to the latest methods in curriculum development and the Rassias Method® by Professor John Rassias, and Mike Intoccia who also developed and directed the Rassias Italian Immersion Camp; and that a Graduation was held on Friday, August 14, 1998, at Casa Italia, Stone Park, IL, during which the students made presentations demonstrating their newly acquired skills in Italian and received certificates of achievement from Doctor Pasquale D'Avino, Consul General of Italy; and that this international collaborative project is supported by the Illinois State Board of Education's GOALS 2000 Grant Program and the Consul General of Italy, Chicago.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
