ALUMNI NEWSLETTER PUBLISHED
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

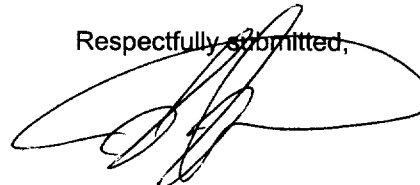

REPORTS

that Washington College is in the process of mailing the first edition of its Alumni Newsletter to over 3,000 former students; and that in addition to information on the Class of 1999, there are articles about Washington Alumni who have recently received academic scholarships and or who have been honored by other organizations and about alumni from programs for the Military and the Intergovernmental Executive Development Program; and that a list of future activities planned by the College for the Alumni is also included in the publication as well as a section featuring "Movers & Shakers", that is prominent Chicagoans such as Chicago Police Superintendent Terry Hillard and 27th Ward Alderman Walter Burnett, Jr., both former students of Washington College.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
