County of Cook and State of Illinois

AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH CELEBRATION
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that during the month of February, Washington College observed Black History Month through a series of workshops, concerts, lectures, films, poetry readings and discussions in and out of the traditional classroom setting; and that all activities were planned by a committee made up of students, faculty, staff and administrators; and that a monthly calendar of activities and an accompanying biographical book were designed and distributed listing the daily events and highlighted the accomplishments of African Americans of the past and present; and that members of the Washington family were encouraged to wear traditional African clothes and styles every Thursday adding a new dimension of fashion flair to traditional business attire; and that the IN Program continued its tradition of assembling and distributing ribbons for all to wear reminding us of the meaning of the four colors; and that the theme of the month was "Sankofa" meaning "Learn from the past - Return to your roots".
