DECEASED

On August 18, 1999, Ms. Mary Staver passed away. Ms Staver worked at Truman College as an Associate Professor in Speech and English. She specialized in English as a Second Language between 1979 and her retirement in 1992, and continued to teach courses part time until 1996. Ms. Staver's presence on the campus, and her involvement with extra-curricular activities and student events, earned her many friends and admirers. The Chancellor and the Board of Trustees join the faculty and students from the campus and community in extending their condolences to the members of Ms. Staver's family on their loss.
