County of Cook and State of Illinois

ADVANCING OPPORTUNITIES AWARD PROGRAM
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

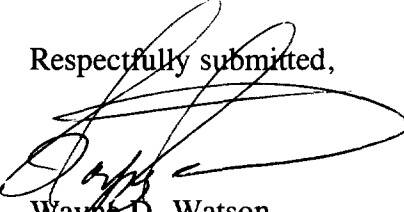

That on June 30, 2000, Harold Washington College's Advancing Opportunities Program held its annual Award and Recognition Luncheon in commemoration of student achievements; and

That Dr. Norma Salazar from Chicago State University in her keynote speech spoke of the benefits of life-long learning encouraging the women students to continue their educational training and development; and that Dr. Salazar spoke using herself as an example, describing how she progressed in her career from welfare dependency to self sufficiency; and that the event celebrated the students' achievements and successes in the Advancing Opportunities Program and each honoree gave an acceptance speech upon receiving her award.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
