PARTNERSHIP WITH AMERICAN AIRLINES
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

Runway to Success

that the welfare-to-work initiated airline industry 10 week job training program "Runway to Success" held its third program completion ceremony on Friday, December 3, 1999. The six program completers were offered entry level positions at American Airlines; and that based upon the retention rate of 86 percent, American Airlines has committed to continue the program and plans are being finalized to begin the next 10 week job training program during the Spring 2000 term.

10 Week Job Training that this 10 week job training program was a result of partnership and collaboration between American Airlines, the Chicago Job Council and Malcolm X College; and that American Airlines will seek additional airlines businesses to support the Runway to Success program with entry level employment opportunities.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
