TEACHERS WIN ENDOWMENT GRANT
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Truman College Spanish teacher Elisa Lopez and Humanities teacher Caroline Guindon have won a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities; and that the grant, administered through the Community College Humanities Association, will allow Truman College Spanish and music students to create multimedia interpretations of stories, works of art and other cultural icons they encounter during coursework, which will then be used to evaluate students' knowledge of the material taught; and that Ms. Lopez' and Ms. Guindon's grant, "Explorations in Music, Meaning and Culture through Technology", was one of only 16 awarded this year.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
