CIRCLE K INTERNATIONAL STUDENT CLUB
SPONSORS ANNUAL THANKSGIVING DINNER
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on November 24, 1999 the Circle K International Student Club, under the leadership of Professor Ted Dunaj, sponsored the 11th annual Washington College Thanksgiving dinner for the homeless. Circle K International is the world's largest collegiate community service organization; and that the students begin work on this project weeks in advance soliciting food and used clothing donations and scheduling volunteers who do the cooking and serving for the event; and that this year's dinner was chaired by Dan Herzog of the Gonnella Baking Company and many Chicagoland businesses including several restaurants in the area who provided cooking facilities, lent their support to making this year's dinner a resounding success; and that this year's dinner, which served at least 1000 guests, included a jazz combo that provided the musical entertainment. After dinner guests also had the opportunity to "shop" for clothing.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
