County of Cook and State of Illinois

CUSTOMER SERVICE TRAINING
DOMINICK CONTINUES TO BE A SUCCESS
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that the Economic Development Department of Washington College continues to work with Dominick's Finer Foods and the Mayor's Office of Workforce Development in offering a key Skills/Customer Service Program for potential employees and has recently completed a third phase with the Dominick's store in the Rogers Park area; and that approximately 77 persons successfully completed the program and have been offered positions ranging from cashiers and utility clerks to assistant managers with Dominick's at its new Gateway Plaza location; and that the hallmark of the program continues to be Dominick's commitment to offering the training necessary to hire individuals in the neighborhood who would not otherwise have the necessary skills to fill the jobs.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
