THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on May 24, 2000, Operation Able, an organization which focuses on the older worker, honored Ethel M. Johnson, College Library Assistant, with the 2000 Claude D. Pepper Distinguished Award for her dedicated service to students; and that as the program stated; "Ethel is always pleasant and serves as a true diplomat. Her amazing sense of humor often saves the day for all the staff. Many of the 1,500 plus students who pass through the library doors every day are greeted by Ethel. As a mother who has raised and educated four children while getting an Associate's degree and preparing herself for the job market, she is able to identify and appreciate the problems and situations of many of our students and staff"; and that Ms. Johnson was joined by members of her family, friends and co-workers of the library staff who shared in the celebration.

Respectfully submitted,
