UNITED PARCEL JOB FAIR
KENNEDY-KING COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

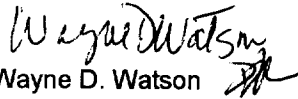

REPORTS

that the partnership between Kennedy-King College, Dawson Technical Institute and United parcel Services produced a "highly successful" Job Fair, Thursday, April 13, 2000 in the Exhibit Hall . Over 250 students from the college campuses and the surrounding community had direct contact with 38 prospective employers in the "Spring Into Your Future, Earn to Learn Job Fair"; and that President Wellington Wilson extended welcoming remarks along with 17th District Police Commander Maurice Ford during a luncheon for the program participants. Paul T. Murphy of Ambassador Cannon spoke on Digital Technology and Reggie Owens with United Parcel Services delivered the Keynote address; and that Graphic Communications students re-edited and designed the programs for the event and Student Government President, Marcus Curtis presided as Master of Ceremonies. All were proud of the exemplary contribution made by Kennedy-King College students to make the event a success.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
