

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
County of Cook and State of Illinois

KATHY OSTERMAN AWARD
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Geraldine Williams, Professor in the Radiologic Technology department at Malcolm X College, recently won a Kathy Osterman Award in category of Outstanding Educational Finalist; and that Professor Williams is responsible for the ongoing maintenance of the Radiologic Technology Program and its staffing, curriculum development, clinical education, didactic education and re-accreditation; and.

VICTORIA SMITH-MURPHY that Victoria Smith-Murphy, Director of Business won in the category of Outstanding Supervisory Employees; and that she now oversees the fiscal affairs and operations services for the college and its more than 1,100 employees and approximately 12,500 students. Victoria is responsible for preparing and managing a $29 million operating budget and comptroller activities.

M. LIZZETTE RICHARDSON

that M. Lizzette Richardson, Director of the Latino Center at Malcolm X College recently won in the category of Outstanding Professional Finalist; and that her scope of responsibilities include individual assistance and referral to Latino students to ensure their academic and personal success, development and implementation of outreach programs to the Latino community in Chicago, and she serves as a liaison between the college and the Latino community.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor

June 1, 2000