

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
County of Cook and State of Illinois

KATHY OSTERMAN PUBLIC SERVICE AWARD
KENNEDY-KING COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that the Distinguished Kennedy-King College Professor of the Year, Barbara G. Washington received the prestigious Kathy Osterman Superior Public Service Award in the Outstanding Educational Employee category. The award will be presented May 9, 2000 during a recognition luncheon at the Palmer House Hotel; and that Interim President Wellington Wilson praises Barbara Washington as a highly respected and valued faculty member, "I am extremely proud of Barbara Washington, who has selflessly dedicated her time and talents to build this great institution." Under her leadership as Library Chairperson since 1996, the library book collection, usage and services have improved. She is credited with implementing the library automation project and is applauded for serving as editor/coordinator of the school course catalogue; and that Ms. Washington is an active union member and community servant holding positions on the local school council, the Girls Scouts, School Board Vice President at St. John de la Salle School and as Home School Association Secretary. Her life journeys lead her to the Peace Corps from 1968 to 1970. She holds degrees from Northwestern University, B.S. Ed; Northeastern Illinois University, M.S. Ed.; and, Rosary College, M.A.L.S. She joined City Colleges of Chicago in 1970; however, she says her most significant accomplishment is raising her two daughters.

She joins other City Colleges of Chicago Kathy Osterman Public Service Awardees including:

Victoria Smith Murphy, Malcolm X College, Outstanding Supervisory Employee
E. Bernice Downs, Truman College, Outstanding General Service Employee

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
