BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
County of Cook and State of Illinois

NATIVE AMERICAN SPIRITUALITY
WRIGHT COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that on April 14th, 30 ESL students attended a continuing education class on Native American Spirituality and Indian Lore as a multi cultural experience; and that the class was presented by Leonard Malatare, who is affiliated with Native American Educational Services College in Chicago. Malatare is a member of the Confederated Salish and Kootenia Tribes of the Flathead Reservation in Montana; and that discussion topics included the power of women in Indian spirituality and the significance of eagle feathers and smoke offerings in every day prayer rituals.
