BUSINESS CLUB DOES WELL AT REGIONAL COMPETITION
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

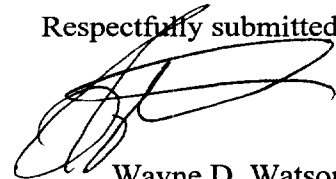

REPORTS that the Truman College Business Club was runner up at the recent 2001 Students in Free Enterprise (SIFE) Regional Exposition, held at the Rosemont Convention Center; and that teams were judged on the effectiveness of educational outreach projects and evaluated on creativity, innovation, results, use of resources, and documentation; and that the Truman College team members were Aleksandra Torres, club president, Sonia Rubio, vice-president, Nijaz Cosovic, activity leader, and Esteban Conde, public relations, all advised by Dr. George Otto, professor of Business and Economics; and that for his work with the SIFE team, Dr. Otto was named a Sam M. Walton Fellow, an award given by the Wal-Mart Foundation for effective teaching of free enterprise.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
