AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that the African American Heritage Month 2002 Committee, co-chaired by Wendell Blair, Assistant Dean, Student Services and James Heard, Department Chair, Social Science, planned and executed a multi-disciplinary month of events and activities in celebration of African American Heritage Month, embracing the theme, "Before the Mayflower, After the Millennium: We are the Stories that We Tell; and that the month of celebration commenced with an Opening Ceremony featuring the personal stories of the Honorable Jesse Jackson, Jr. and the Honorable Danny K. Davis, followed by a series of events including the 15th Annual Oratorical Festival and presentations on the African American presence in the sciences, the arts, law, the Western Frontier, and Hip Hop culture, to name a few; and that the month culminated with the traditional Closing Ceremony and Feast, featuring a fashion extravaganza by Harold Washington College's African Student Association and the awards presentation of the 2nd Annual Ramon Price Art Contest and Exhibition.
