Wright College
Cultural Events Committee

TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES:

THE CHANCELLOR

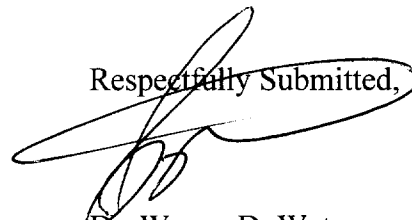

REPORTS

that the Wright College Cultural Events Committee co-sponsored the Stage Wright premiere production of Ron Chiolak dramatic new comedy Burma Shave Highway on November 15, 16, and 17, 2001. Eighteen Stage Wright College credit students were in the cast or worked as stage crew. The Director of Wright College's Theater/Speech program directed. Approximately 220 attended the three performances.

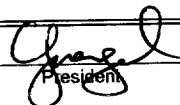

that Wright College's Cultural Events Committee sponsored our resident Northwest Chicago Symphony Orchestra's String Quartet Concert on Sunday, November 11, 2001. Approximately 150 attended the event in our 200-seat Theater.

that Wright College Cultural Events Committee sponsored a Shaw Chicago reading performance on Wednesday, December 5, 2001, to support the Great Books program's Gods and Monsters Fall 2001 semester topic. Readings by the four actors included scenes from Shaw's Caesar and Cleopatra, Back to Methuselah, and The Simpleton of the Unexpected Isles. Two professors, one English and one Social Science, brought their classes. Approximately 100 attended. The above events were coordinated and implemented by the Director and staff of the Student Affairs/Activities Office.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dr. Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
