County of Cook and State of Illinois

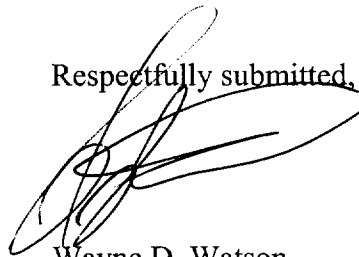

CHICAGO CENTER FOR EARLY EDUCATION
OPENS AT MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that the Chicago Center for Early Education held its grand opening celebration at Malcolm X College on May 2, 2002. The Chicago Center for Early Education is a comprehensive resource center for parents, educators and early childhood care professionals. The Chicago Center for Early Education is the result of a collaborative partnership between Malcolm X College, Chicago Department of Human Services and the University of Illinois/Chicago.

FURTHER, that the Chicago Center for Early Education is housed in the Carter G. Woodson Library of Malcolm X College and provides services to residents of the City of Chicago. The specialized holdings include books, periodicals, videos, software and manipulatives. The Center contains a computer lab with internet access, training and meeting space.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
