Wright College
Theta Omega Executive Officers & Advisors Attended
84th International Convention of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society

TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES:

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

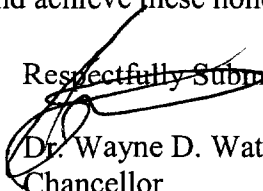

Theta Omega attended the 84th International Convention of Phi Theta Kappa, "United We Stand," in Nashville Tennessee on April 2-7, 2002. The delegates who attended were the executive board members of the chapter. The two faculty advisors who attended were Ginia Jahrke and Henry Herzog.

Dr. Mary Anne Player, Illinois Regional Coordinator Emeritus, was named an International Honorary Member of Phi Theta Kappa. Dr. Player was the Illinois Regional Coordinator for twenty-seven years, and her contributions continue despite her retiring.

Theta Omega was awarded the prestigious "Most Distinguished Chapter Award." This honor placed Theta Omega in the top twenty-five chapters out of 1400 chapters worldwide. Theta Omega also received the honor of the "Top 25 Chapters in Service." The chapter achieved five Star Status again this year. In the past year, Theta Omega inducted one hundred and fifty-five new members into Wright College's Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa. This number represented a fifty percent increase in membership, which exceeded their goal of ten percent. Due to this extraordinary success, Theta Omega was awarded the "Pinnacle Scholarship Award." The executive officers were honored receive these awards for their team efforts in fulfilling their commitment to all of the hallmarks of Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Fellowship.

Theta Omega expressed their gratitude to the supportive administration, the support of the faculty, and to the student body. Due to the incredible support, Theta Omega was able to accomplish their goals and achieve these honors for Wilbur Wright College.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dr. Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
