GREAT NITTY GRITTY PERFORMANCE
OLIVE-HARVEY COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Olive-Harvey College and ABJ Community Services, Inc., hosted the premier of Oscar Brown, Jr's "Great Nitty Gritty" on Friday, February 1, 2002. The performance centers on a stature that comes to life in the image and spirit of Jean Baptiste Pointe DuSable, founder of the City of Chicago. DuSable returns in spirit, once again as a peacemaker, but now to end warfare between rival gangs in present day Chicago. DuSable enlists the aid of Willie Boy, a young victim of gang violence who lies at the brink of death. Together, they tour Chicago to determine if there can truly be peace on the streets. Jean Baptiste Pointe DuSable points to a way to overcome many of the ills that beset the city he founded.

that February 1st premier performance and reception were well attended. Special guests included the author of "Great Nitty Gritty", Oscar Brown Jr. A total of four performances will be offered, with proceeds benefiting the programs of ABJ Community Services, Inc., and Olive -Harvey College's Scholarship Fund.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
