Wright College Women's History Month Efforts
Raise $1100 for Breast Cancer Research

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

During March, Women's History Month, Wright women celebrated their heritage by organizing several fund raisers to aid in the fight against breast cancer. So far, they've raised $1100 and two walk-a-thons in May and June are expected to produce additional revenue.

Fund raising activities during March included a benefit pizza party and a Krispy Kreme donut sale. The funds will be divided between the Y-Me Race Against Breast Cancer and the Avon Breast Cancer Crusade.

Thirteen Wright College female employees have signed up to walk in the one- or three-mile Y-Me Race Against Breast Cancer May 12 at Chicago's Grant Park.

A fourteenth Wright female employee will participate in the Avon event by walking 60 miles from Kenosha, Wis. to Chicago's Grant Park June 14 - 16.

Respectfully submitted,
