Wright College Featured on Six CCC City Edition TV Shows and
An Additional News Segment on Channel 7

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

During summer and fall, 2002, Wright College programs are being featured on six WYCC-TV 20 CCC City Edition shows, along with programs of other City Colleges of Chicago. Wright College was also featured on a news segment on funding for special needs education on Channel 7.

Wright programs featured on the CCC City Edition shows were:

June: Environmental Technology programs

August: Community Outreach—The Happiness Club, a song and dance for inner city youngsters that espouses “values are cool,” violence and drugs are not.

September: Displaced Homemakers Program for women who have lost their source of income and have no job skills.

November: Stage Wright. Wright’s student theater group.

December: Ira Lévy, the Wright Journalism Professor who biked across the United States this summer raising college funds for children who lost a parent Sept. 11.

January: Synchronized Swim Club. Wright College originated the sport in 1935.

Channel 7/ABC television also featured Wright’s Special Needs Office on its Sunday, Sept. 1, newscast. Appearing in the news segment were Wright special needs student William Acevedo and 2002 graduates Erin Magoon and Kieanna Parker and Wayne Watson, CCC Chancellor.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
