DU SABLE COMMEMORATION EVENT:
WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that the DuSable Commemoration Planning Committee of Washington College (HWC) successfully conducted its First Annual DuSable Commemoration event, the Getting to Know DuSable Symposium on Tuesday, March 4, 2003.

that noted authorities on Jean Baptiste Pointe DuSable, the founder of Chicago, served as panelists and shared valuable information about the legacy of DuSable with hundreds of HWC students, faculty and staff.

that the symposium was culturally enhanced by dance and drum performances by both the American Indian Center and the Tamboula Haitian Dance and Drum Ensembles, highlighting DuSable's multi-faceted heritage.

that this event was the result of a growing partnership between HWC, the Friends of DuSable and the City of Chicago Commission on Human Relations.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
