Illinois Professional Learners' Partnership
Wright College

TO THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES:

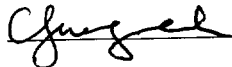

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Wright College hosted a special conference for the Illinois Professional Learners' Partnership (IPLP) on February 24, 2003. The day-long conference, No Child Left Behind: Challenges and Opportunities for Teacher Education, offered national and state perspectives regarding the act as well as opportunities for partner members to discuss NCLB's challenges and to plan appropriate actions for the improvement of the quality of teacher education and increases in student achievement. Speakers for the day were David Imig, President of the American Association of Colleges of Teacher Education and Lou Ann Reichle of the Illinois State Board of Education. The conference drew eighty-five attendees from the colleges, universities, K-12 districts, and educational foundations and associations that comprise the IPLP membership.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne Watson
Chancellor
