The Latino Community Recognized
at
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Malcolm X College, in maintaining its firm commitment to ethnic diversity by reaching out to members of the diverse communities surrounding the institution, recognized various leaders in the Latino community at its annual Latino/Hispanic Heritage Month breakfast. This year's breakfast featured a fabulous keynote speaker who presented on the well known and award winning prevention program, Family and Schools Together (FAST). Several Federal Agencies have also recognized the FAST program as a "Best Practice" program; and further, in keeping with its commitment to empower communities through education, while maintaining its commitment to diversity, Malcolm X College continues to reach out to Community Based Organizations, Latino elected and appointed officials, as well as leaders in education. This outreach allows those in attendance to see first hand that Malcolm X College continues to move forward in its commitment to making higher education accessible to all of the residents in the various neighborhoods surrounding the institution; and that by inviting high quality and dynamic speakers to present on well known and award winning programs, such the Family and Schools Together (FAST) program, Malcolm X College is steadfast in maintaining its commitment to help empower communities through education.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
