Month-Long Activities Recognizing Latino/Hispanic Heritage Month
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Malcolm X College, in maintaining its firm commitment to a diverse student body representative of the mosaic that comprises the cultural and ethnic make up of this great city, held its annual Latino/Hispanic Heritage Month during the period of September 15 and October 15, 2003; and that, in maintaining its focus on empowerment through education, Malcolm X College offered quality educational and cultural programs addressing historical and contemporary trends with a focus on the fusion of cultural traits, which make up modern Latin America, including Mexico, the Caribbean, and Latinos in the U.S. In addition, the programs addressed the cultural heritage that is shared by Latinos and African Americans in its music, customs, and language; and that, throughout the entire Latino/Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration, Malcolm X College hosted an Art Exhibition of works done by well-known Latino Artists in the U.S. ; and that inviting high quality, dynamic, and world-renowned speakers, as well as famous Artists, to present at Malcolm X College during the Latino/Hispanic Heritage Month, exposed students to a level of academics that is equal to those found at Ivy League institutions.
