2002 Chess Tournament
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS the MXC Chess Tournament Fall 2002, which kicked off on Monday, November 18, 2002, had a total of 38 vying for the honor to be crowned the student king or queen of chess. The competition was very exciting and keen from the beginning. The crowning event was the championship match, which took place November 26th. It was an epic battle of wits and skills between Jimmy Villanueva and Richard Harris; and

THE WINNER WAS JIMMY VILLANUEVA; and

the winners table was as follows:

1st place - Jimmy Villanueva

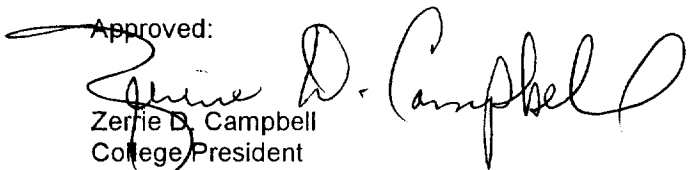

2nd place - Richard Harris

3rd place - Spurgent Mason

This tournament sets the standard for future events of the MXC Chess Club. Members of the Club are making plans to participate in local and regional Chess contests. We are thankful to Professor Boniface Ekpenyoung for his dedication and his guidance of the Chess club. The Chess Club members will sponsor regularly scheduled "Chess 101" sessions to promote the game of Chess and to teach beginners the game; and further, look for the Chess Club's Spring Tournament, which is scheduled for the week of March 24, 2003.
