BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT 508
County of Cook and State of Illinois

AIRMAN, CLINTON DIARIST HEAD BLACK HISTORY MONTH
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that a program by former Tuskegee Airman Quentin P. Smith and Master Sgt. A.J. Vaughn of the 2nd Battalion, 24th Marines were among the events taking place during Black History Month at Truman College; and that other events included a presentation by motivational speaker Dr. Cuttie W. Bacon III, an exhibit of woodcuts by Rwandan artist Duhirwe Rushemeza and a program of Haitian dance performed by the Tamboula dance troupe; and that on February 27, students heard a presentation by Janis F. Kearney, former newspaper publisher and public administrator and official diarist for President Bill Clinton.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
