HUMBOLDT PARK VOCATIONAL EDUCATION CENTER OF WRIGHT COLLEGE HOSTS BREAKFAST FOR KELVYN PARK HIGH SCHOOL
WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT GRADUATES
WRIGHT COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

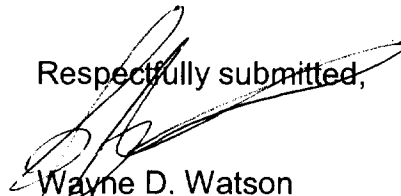

REPORTS

that the Humboldt Park Vocational Education Center (HPVEC) of Wilbur Wright College hosted a Student Recognition Breakfast on August 16, 2003 for twenty-two Kelvyn Park High School students who successfully completed vocational classes through the Workforce Investment Act/Mayor's Office of Workforce Development, (WIA/MOWD) Youth Guidance program, and;

that classes were offered by HPVEC along with its counterparts at West Side Technical Institute of Richard J. Daley College and Dawson Technical Institute of Kennedy-King College in cooperation with Youth Guidance/Project Prepare Youth Opportunity. At HPVEC, most students took classes in the Information Processing Technology (IPT) program; some enrolled in the Certified Nursing Assistant Program, and;

that the purpose of the program was to provide vocational training to selected high school juniors and seniors in each of the areas represented by a Technical Center. The program was funded with a WIA/MOWD grant.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
