Chicago Tribune Article Highlighting Trends in Health Care
Nephrology/Renal Technology Program

MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Professor Patricia Williams, Program Director for the Nephrology/Renal Technology Program at Malcolm X College was interviewed by the Chicago Tribune for an article titled: Nephrology: Increase in renal diseases heightens demand for dialysis technicians. The article appeared in the October 10, 2004 edition of the Employment Classified Advertising section of the Chicago Tribune. The article cites Malcolm X College as the nation's only program for Nephrology/Renal Practitioners. The one-year program leads to an Advanced Certificate and the two-year programs leads to the Associate in Applied Science Degree. Since 1991, eighty-seven students have graduated with an Advanced Certificate.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
