

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
County of Cook and State of Illinois*PSYCHOLOGY HONOR SOCIETY WINS NATIONAL AWARD
TRUMAN COLLEGE*THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that members of Truman College's chapter of Psi Beta, a national honor society for community college psychology majors, received the national Psi Beta-Ann Robinson College Life Award, which recognizes programs that improve the quality of life at community colleges and advance the discipline of psychology; and that the Truman Psi Beta chapter won for a week-long series of workshops on coping with stress that was given at the college last year; and that Kenneth Gray, national president of Psi Beta and instructor of psychology at the College of DuPage, presented the award August 27 with City Colleges of Chicago Chancellor Dr. Wayne D. Watson and Truman College President Dr. Marguerite E. Boyd in attendance; and that Psi Beta promotes professional development in the field of psychology by recognizing and promoting excellence in scholarship, leadership, research, and community service.

Respectfully submitted

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
