MORE THAN 1,000 ATTEND THIRD ANNUAL OPEN HOUSE
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that more than 1,000 visitors attended the college's third annual open house March 15-17, 2005, including more than 700 Chicago high school students and clients and representatives from area community based organizations; and that the three-day event, held throughout the college, featured tours of the facility, information booths on academic programs and student support services, and special demonstrations by faculty and staff; and that visitors, particularly high school guidance counselors, reported being impressed by the college's diversity, by the number and scope of programs offered, and by the welcoming atmosphere created by faculty and staff; and that counselors also said that positive word of mouth generated among their students by the open house will make it easier to enroll them at Truman in the fall.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
