HIGHEST AWARDS FOR WRIGHT "CAGERS"

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Wilbur Wright College men's basketball team, re-started in 2001 after a ten year moratorium, was honored this week with the naming of four of its players on the North Central Community College Conference's All-Conference team. First Team honoree is Jarvier Pitchford (Lincoln Park), a sophomore, who led the conference in total points (750) and points per game (25.0) in the 30-game season. Point guard, Andre Bell (Fenger), a sophomore, was named to the Second Team with a 6.3 assist average per game. Armand Moore (Oak Park) and Najeh Abdelfattah (Taft), both freshmen, were awarded Honorable Mention recognition. In addition, Jarvier Pitchford was again highly honored by being named to the First Team All Region Team in Region IV Division II of the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Monica Rice, a freshman guard for Wright College, was named to the National Junior College Athletic Association's First Team in Region IV – Division II, and as a First Team member of the North Central Community College Conference. Monica, a graduate of Resurrection High School, led Region I and the N4C Conference with 675 points in 27 games and a 25.0 points per game average.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
