Malcolm X College Faculty & Staff
Higher Learning Commission Presentation at Annual Meeting

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Malcolm X College faculty and staff made a presentation entitled "Linking Classroom Practices to the College Mission Statement" at the 110th Annual Meeting of The Higher Learning Commission, North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, Chicago, IL, April 12, 2005; and that the presentation is based on an on-going mission statement revision project conducted college wide for the past 18 months with participation of 14 committee members and input from the college family. Professor M. Gabriela Muralles-Ball (Language & Literature), Professor Arnell Harris (Humanities & Fine Arts), Dr. Ranfen Li, Interim Dean of Instruction and Ms. Cecile Regner, Vice President for Faculty & Instruction represented the college for the presentation; and that the presentation allowed us to engage in intellectual and academic exchange with faculty and administrators from other colleges and universities in the North Central region, and also encouraged our faculty to participate in professional development activities.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
