WOMEN'S SYMPOSIUM
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Dr. Gloria Jackson – Bacon, President of the Institute for Black Women and Zerrie D. Campbell, President of Malcolm X College sponsored a series of Symposia in celebration of Women's History Month. The theme for the series was "The Whole Woman in Balance"; and

FURTHER that lively discussion was held every Wednesday evening surrounding the "Whole Woman in Balance: Physically, Financially, Economically and Spiritually". Each evenings' symposium was preceded by a reception with light snacks; and that the series of Symposia held during Women's History Month included as speakers such distinguished guests as: Bobbie Steele, Dr. Diane Collins, Dr. Joy West, Lucille Dobbins, Cynthia Hardy, Rev. Janette Wilson, Rev. Dr. Chandra Taylor-Smith, Eloise Spencer, Samira Robinson and Dolores Cross. More than 120 members of the Malcolm X College family and the community at large participated in the series. All participants were exposed to a wealth of information celebrating Women in all aspects of life.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
