Wright College's Stage Wright Theater Produces Its 11th Play

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that Theater Musicals continue to attract packed audiences at Wright College with the Stage Wright production of Godspell by John-Michael Tebelak and Stephen Schwartz. Eight performances were given from April 27 through May 7.

that the production highlighted a double cast, consisting of twenty-two students and a crew (stage, costume, make-up, and house) of sixteen students. The production staff featured Wright faculty including Director Maria Jaskot-Inclan (Co-Chair of the Department of Visual & Performing Arts and Assistant Professor of Speech & Theater), Scenic Designer and Technical Director Megan Geigner (Instructor of Speech & Theater), and Musical Director Hubert Clay (Lecturer of Music).

the play promotes the formation of a community of individual committed to fellowship. This is the eleventh production of Stage Wright, founded in 1999.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
