WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that during the month of March the Women's History Month Committee chaired by Professor Careleta Alston, the Student Government Association and the Office of Enrollment Management and Student Services, sponsored an array of activities celebrating and commemorating Women's History Month; and FURTHER that the celebration began with a featured film highlighting this year's theme for Women's History Month, "Living Independently - Living Well". Special presentations were also made by a student poet, Shaquila Moore, regarding the evolution of a woman from childhood to adulthood and Dr. Lois Collins, professor of Biology, on "Woman and Wellness" at the Student Leadership Institute; and that the month's calendar of activities sponsored and hosted by the college and centering around this year's Women's History Month theme, included: "Yoga" by Rosalia Holt; "SPA Day"; a series of "Brown Bag Discussions"; Faculty lectures and workshops on topics such as "Women on the Border", "Safe Sex", "Women in Sciences" and informational seminars. The vendors participating in the informational seminars included United HealthCare, Primera Financial Institute, and Y-Me Breast Cancer Association; and that the male population of the college hosted and catered to the women of Malcolm X College at its Annual Women's Breakfast; and that the Month's culminating event featured the First Annual Phenomenal Women's Pageant where several female students exhibited their talents, skills and grace; and that the of activities held during Women's History Month lived up to its theme and provided the college as a whole with a variety of educational perspectives and information to celebrate Women in all aspects of their lives.

Respectfully submitted,
