Wright College Hosts 125 Eighth Graders from Burbank School
For Presentations on Careers and College and School Tour

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

Wilbur Wright College hosted 125 eighth graders from Burbank School April 5 and heard presentations on skill building for careers, the importance of staying in high school until graduation, and how to succeed in college by our faculty. A pizza lunch topped off the morning.

According to Amy Aiello, Assistant Dean of Student Services who coordinated the event, most of the parents of these students have not attended college.

Respectfully submitted:
