CENTER FOR DISTANCE LEARNING HOSTS ITS FIRST FACULTY RECRUITMENT
FAIR/GRADUATE STUDENT RECEPTION
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that as part of Center for Distance Learning's (CDL) overall faculty recruitment program, the CDL Department at Harold Washington College hosted its First Faculty Recruitment Fair/Graduate Student Reception on Friday, October 14, 2005, and that President John Wozniak provided a heartfelt welcome and Vice Chancellor of Human Resources Xiomara Cortes-Metcalf provided a very informative, interesting and entertaining presentation regarding the role of those working in distance learning and the philosophy of the world being flat, and that CDL had a number of multimedia presentations of CDL as well as workstations for demonstrating and exhibiting various CDL courses, and that CDL's First Faculty Recruitment Fair/Graduate Student Reception was a great collegial gathering of CDL faculty, potential CDL faculty, CDL/CCC administrators, faculty and staff.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
