UIC'S PROJECT
SHARING OPPORTUNITIES AND ACTIVITIES FOR READING (SOAR)
OFFICE PRESENTATION
HAROLD WASHINGTON COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORT that Harold Washington College provided an informational workshop on Friday, November 4, 2005 to the Parent Literacy Leaders in the Head Start Program at UIC's Project SOAR, and that Aida V. Diaz, Assistant Director, Office of Financial Aid, Mary Kaleta, Director, Office of Human Services/Child Development, and Natalia Zuniga, College Advisor, Advising Office designed the presentation to provide information about opportunities at Harold Washington College for parents in the Head Start Program, and that this included GED, as well as college level course work information, programs available through the Child Development Program sponsored by the Department of Human Services, and the process, procedures and grant opportunities available through financial aid to fund their education, and that the training workshop was held to inform, motivate and assist prospective students in the process of obtaining a higher education and possibly becoming Head Start teachers.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
