BASKETBALL REMATCH GAME
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that on November 2, 2005 the long awaited, much demanded student v. staff/faculty basketball rematch was held, and yet again, with a lack of players, height and practice, the old men showed that experience, heart and dedication can and did prevail. The game MVP was awarded to Emmanuel "Meko" Young, who used his experience and "youth" to slash the lane, pull up for key jumpers and play good defense. In one of the most intense, down to the last quarter games of the year, "Meko" along with the other determined faculty and staff "all stars" managed to silence their competitors. No new cries for a rematch have been heard. The game was ably refereed by Vice President Ghingo Brooks and an external referee. A good time was had by all.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
