INSTRUCTOR'S WORK FEATURED IN GALLERY SHOW
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that Truman College photography instructor Carole Harmel has one of her photographs featured in a show, Bookplates, at Printworks Gallery, 311 W. Superior; and that for the show, featuring bookplates honoring various people admired by the invited artists, Ms. Harmel chose surrealist photographer and painter Man Ray, using her daughter, Alexandra, as a model to re-create a well-known Man Ray photo; and that Ms. Harmel's photo was chosen to advertise the show in the current edition of Chicago Gallery News.

Respectfully submitted,
