County of Cook and State of Illinois

STUDENTS COLLECT, DONATE GOODS FOR HURRICANE VICTIMS
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that members of the Truman College student clubs collected more than 3,000 articles of clothing, household goods, nonperishable food, books, and toys for victims of Hurricane Katrina; and that the Salvation Army received the clothing, a variety of donations went to Together We Cope - Tinley Park Evacuee Center, which is supporting 40 families relocated from Louisiana to the south suburbs of Chicago, Catholic Charities received books to help rebuild libraries and schools in New Orleans, and the American Red Cross received funds both from donations and from a sale of some of the clothing and other items; and that students are still collecting for victims of disaster in Mexico, Guatemala, India and Pakistan.

Respectfully submitted,
