BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT NO. 508
 County of Cook and State of Illinois

WOMEN'S (HER STORY) MONTH
 MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS

that during the month of March 2006, the Office of Enrollment Management and Student Services in conjunction with the Student Government Association sponsored an array of activities celebrating Women's History Month. The celebration began with the unveiling of this year's theme for Women's (HER STORY) Month: "Defining Ourselves for Ourselves"; and that the Malcolm X College organized and sponsored a series of forums featuring dynamic women presenters including; Maria Moore, Director of WYCC; Nancy Clawson, Member of the Board Trustees; Dr. Phyllis Brooks, Associate Dean Kennedy - King/ Dawson Technical Institute; Hermene Hartman, Publisher, Indigo Message; Gloria Castillo, Member of the Board of Trustees; Roxanne Nava, Assistant Director, Illinois Dept. of Commerce and Economic Opportunity and former Member of the Board of Trustees; and Dr. Ranfen Li, Associate Dean and Chair of the Malcolm X College Self Study Steering Committee. Dr. Li's presentation explored the "Self- Study Accreditation" process with the College's constituents; and that the following activities were also hosted by the College and centered around this year's Women's History Month theme: Yoga by Rosalia Holt; a SPA Day; a Nutrition Fair sponsored by the Biology Department; a Jazz Performance Film Festival on "Ladies of Jazz"; a play, "Story Theatre" performed and produced by the Malcolm X College Theatre students, as well as, faculty lectures on "Women and Sexism" and "Women's Health Issues"; and that the male population of the college hosted and catered to the women of Malcolm X College at its Annual Women's Breakfast; and that the culminating event featured the Institute of Black Women's Opening Reception and Symposium entitled "Who's in Your Safety Net?" and the week of activities held during Women's (HER STORY) Month lived up to its theme and provided the college, as a whole, with an educational perspective and a wealth of information about celebrating Women in all aspects of life.

Respectfully submitted,
