THIRD ANNUAL S.E.R.I.O.U.S. CONFERENCE
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that on Friday, April 28, 2006 Malcolm X College, in collaboration with the Chicago Public Schools' Department of Postsecondary Education, Cluster 3-Area 21, hosted the third annual S.E.R.I.O.U.S. Conference. The conference is designed to help graduating high school seniors successfully transition from high school to college. Approximately five hundred and twenty-seven (527) high school students from the west side, area 21, participated in this conference; and FURTHER that workshops were conducted on topics such as money management, campus based resources, the importance of fitness and nutrition and college Greek life. Testimonials from former CPS students were also a part of the conference.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
