8TH ANNUAL CITY WIDE HEALTH CAREERS FAIR CONFERENCE/COLLEGE FAIR
MALCOLM X COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that on Thursday, May 18, 2006 Malcolm X College's Education to Careers/College Bridge Program hosted the Chicago Public Schools Health Cluster's 8th Annual City-Wide Health Career Fair with five hundred – nineteen (519) students in attendance and twenty (20) external Health Care presenters; and

FURTHER that the program included a welcome by Ghingo Brooks, Vice President of Enrollment Management & Student Services and remarks about Malcolm X College's Health Science Programs from Lee Owens, Dean of Careers and Continuing Education. Dean Owens was followed by remarks from Jill Wine-Banks, CPS Department of Education to Careers; and that the keynote speaker, Rev. Rae Lewis-Thorton, an HIV/AIDS positive individual, made a special presentation to the students about HIV/AIDS awareness, planning and intervention; and that the program concluded with students participating in rotations through the Health Science laboratories and attending workshops on HIV/AIDS education, mental health, CPR/first aid and Yoga as stress relief.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
