NEW GLOBAL ISSUES LECTURE SERIES BEGAN IN APRIL
TRUMAN COLLEGE

THE CHANCELLOR

REPORTS that the first in the new Global Issues Lecture Series, "Eternal Suspects: The Relationship Between Latinos and the Dominant Class in the U.S.," was held in late April at Truman College; and that the speaker was Dr. Ilya Adler, Acting Director of the Center of International Relations at Alliant International University; and that Dr. Adler's lecture addressed cultural differences as the cause of the breakdown of communication between Latinos and other U.S. ethnic, social, and political groups; and that Dr. Adler previously taught at the University of Illinois-Chicago and for the past 20 years has been an active consultant, teacher, and researcher on multicultural issues, specializing in Latino issues.

Respectfully submitted,

Wayne D. Watson
Chancellor
